

Chris Vermeulen's Futures Trading Signals

Subscribers of this service will receive approx. 7 recommendations each month. All recommendations are COMPLETE with entry and then exit recommendations, to help subscribers smoothly enter and exit each trade.

Recommendations are sent via email, posted in the subscriber chat section and verbally discussed by chat via the Live Squawk feature. Again, one major goal of this service is to keep things as simple as possible.

This document merely shows the email recommendation and chart screens related to the recommendations in support of the virtual "look over my shoulder" functionality. This does not illustrate companion live chat nor the audio discussion. Order a subscription and you can fully experience a new recommendation in all the user-friendly dimensions.

The below are all SAMPLES FOR ILLUSTRATIVE PURPOSES ONLY, not current recommendations for members of this service.

Buy Silver Trade Alert

Looks like precious metals are having a reversal from looking at the candle sticks charts. This looks like a great low risk entry point to go long silver.

Buy Silver at Market Price (Silver ETF, Silver Futures, Silver CFD)

I will update with my charts and analysis tonight.

Sunday Feb 7th 1:52PM ET Gold & SP500 Psychology

It looks as though we nailed the market bottom on Feb 5th. Both stocks and commodities are moving higher.

Here is a little educational report I put together for you:

-Chris Vermeulen

One of the most valuable benefits for subscribers is what we call real-time monitoring. In a nutshell, Chris is watching all open positions, all day, every day, looking for the most opportune time to exit to take profits or cut losses short. He alerts you only when it's time to take action, such as in this sample update adjusting the protective stop...

Silver Trade Update

Silver popped today so we will minimize our risk by moving our Protective Stop to break-even. With any luck our first price target will get hit tomorrow.

Move Protective Stop to Break Even: $15.20 (Entry Price)
Sell 30-50% of Position at First Resistance Level: $16.50

As usual, I will update with the charts and analysis later today.

-Chris Vermeulen

Later that day, members will be able to see updated analysis and charts like this one for the open position...

Three days pass, and again it's time to take some action. Chris is always looking to minimize subscriber risk, so a favorite strategy is to sell off partial positions when they are profitable to start scaling out of a trade that may still have some upside profit potential.

Silver Trade Alert

Great day for precious metals! Silver is on fire reaching our $16.50 scale out level. Selling 30-50% of your position now is crucial for locking in a profit and minimizing our downside risk.

TARGET TRADE ALERT

Silver Reached First Price Target $16.50
Sell 30-50% of Position NOW to lock in some profit and lower our overall risk. Profit of 8.55%

I will update with my charts and analysis tonight.

-Chris Vermeulen

Again, later that evening, subscribers find updated analysis and charts like this one...

Now that you see the basic pattern of how things works, you probably recognize that Chris makes timely recommendations to maximize profit potentials for subscribers using that part of the service for trading purposes. Analysis and chart updates reflect a small sampling of the educational aspects of the service. Together- with a wide range of related benefits- subscribers enjoy a COMPLETE service: an ideal blend of actionable, profitable recommendations AND exceptional education.

A few more days have passed for our sample trade. Then, Chris issues another alert...

Tuesday March 2nd 12:40PM ET

Silver Trade Update

Silver is surging higher today and nearing a resistance level. I feel silver is now getting a little overbought and its best if we move our Protective Stop up and see if we can sell our position at $17.25

TRADER UPDATE

Raise Protective Stop to $16.50

Exit Silver Position if $17.25 is Reached

I will update with my charts and analysis tonight.

-Chris Vermeulen

Once again, an educational round of analysis and chart updates follow later that day...

A couple of days later, the position reaches the target profit level, and the formal exit alert is rushed to subscribers...

Chris Vermeulen's Futures Trading Signals

Wednesday Mar 5th 3:02PM ET Sell Silver Trade Alert

Yesterdays rally has carried over to today. Silver has surged and reached our $17.25 Sell Price.

EXIT SILVER TRADE
Silver Target Reached at $17.25
Profit of 13.4%

I will update with my charts and analysis tonight.

-Chris Vermeulen

Subscribers win nicely on a relatively low risk trade. Once again, there is educational analysis and updated charts later in the day...

This is a pretty typical trade, doing a nice job of illustrating how both strong and quick profits can be realized, while risk is carefully managed by valuable benefits like real-time monitoring. Chris will be aiming for small quick profits as well as larger profit targets up to 100% or more.

Again, this is just the elements of sample recommendations suitable for a printed sample exhibit for non-subscribers. Members are also seeing and hearing about each trade in the Subscriber Chat area and via Live Squawk.

And the educational support of daily, weekly and biweekly features are there to help even the more novice trader rapidly grow their trading intellect and confidence.
